Creative Advocacy Work

One Baptism, Many Gifts: The Story of Three Lutherans Called to Ministry (2009)

Co-directed documentary that tells the stories of three LGBT pastors and their struggles with discrimination in the Lutheran church. The film was used as an advocacy tool in the successful 2009 denomination-wide reversal of anti-LGBT church policy.

Daily Work: Building Bridges to Employment (2008)

Directed short documentary about work and mission of Daily Work, a Twin Cities non-profit that aids people with barriers to employment. Interviewed Executive Director and several clients to create a film used for advertising and fundraising.

Other Work Experience

Researcher/Assistant to Editor 2015

Return to Black Planet (documentary), Los Angeles, CA

Researcher and assistant to editor Bryan Darling (editor on I Want Your Love, 2012, story consultant on Interior. Leather Bar., 2013) for James Franco's documentary webseries based on David Shields' book Black Planet: Facing Race During an NBA Season (1999). Collected video footage to contextualize and illustrate concepts discussed by Shields, such as race, gender, performance, etc.

Researcher/Assistant to Editor 2013 - 2014

Seed Money: The Chuck Holmes Story (documentary), Los Angeles, CA

Researcher and assistant to editor Bryan Darling for documentary about Falcon Studios. Took notes on the films, identified dates and actors in photos, and helped choose footage that reflects gay history and culture of the period the film discusses.

English Tutor 2011

IvyMax Academy, San Marino, CA

Prepared lesson plans, taught English grammar one-on-one to an ESL student.

Editorial Intern 2009
